Each child is a unique and gifted child with specific potential. A school must discover the innate potential of the child and groom it to perfection. Parents step into the premises of the school with a dream of their wards and it is the prime duty of a school to help unfold and realize the cherished dreams. It is a social responsibility too. A good school channelizes the energies of youth in a creative and productive direction. The prime endeavor of DPIS, Baliapur, Dhanbad is to tap the potentials of the children and guide them towards the fulfillment of their respective goals.

Teaching methodologies have been changing. A school has to keep pace with this change by providing the best infrastructures, technology, competent teachers and a healthy and safe environment. We are committed to making your wards a good human being with competency, intellectual curiosity and values to confidently take on all life challenges and emerge victorious whatever career they choose.

I invite you to explore the opportunities that await your child to unfold dreams with conviction and commitment at DPIS. With the old saying 'चैरेवति-चैरेवति ...' I wish you all the Best!

Indian education system has attained a full circle from the Gurukul System to the advent of the third decade of the 21st century. Education in the Vedic period was holistic and emphasized the values, character building and practical aspects.

The NEP 2020 propagates the same at its core under the acquisition of competency. Critical thinking and problem-solving, creativity and innovation, collaborative learning, effective communication and life skills are the 21st-century skills practiced in schools today.

Values and leadership have occupied the forefront in traversing the path of opted careers. At DPIS we embrace the same and help and nurture children towards becoming engineers, doctors, professors, civil servants, scientists, etc. as per their potential and interests, focusing on becoming responsible and sensitive human beings.

Proper emphasis is laid upon the meticulous and scientific ways of teaching the structured CBSE syllabus along with sports, art, music, visual and performing art. The school has a system of maintaining the complete profile of individual children with details of the strong and weak areas.

Teachers work strategically on the problem areas of individual children in coordination with parents and stakeholders. This progress record is shared with the parents in the Parent-Teachers Meeting (PTM). Parents are always welcome to discuss even minor problems of their wards with the teachers and the principal. We are committed to providing students the safest environment to put wings to their dreams on the clean, green and disciplined campus. With open hearts, DPIS, Baliapur, Dhanbad welcomes you. All the best for the creative years ahead!
